space, a cool, green recreation ground for the needy dwellers in its immediate vicinity. Why, in the name of common sense, should it be blocked off for them refreshment most? The season is now advanced enough to make evenings passed m the little park most enjoyable.

THE EVENING WORLD secured the opening of Stuyvesant Park for the heated inmates of the tenements on the east side. It now demands, as a right for the people, that Jeannette Park be open to them at these, hours when it is most available and advantageous-namely, from sundown till 10 o'clock at night.

There should be no delay in doing this act of simple justice.

The milk producers of this State have met in conclave, and ta'ked, argued and worried over the price of milk. The lack of ice this Summer is going to put the creameries to great straits. Nearly all the deliberations of the millimen were on this vital point of price. One has only to reflect on what his morning coffee would be deprived of its milk to see the importance of this article of commerce.
